Written by Ahmed Mohammed, Bauchi Hits: 475

The anti robbery squad from the Bauchi State Police Command foiled a robbery attempt at the house of a Bauchi based businessman and chairman, Bauchi State Trade and Artisans Association, Alhaji Salisu Garba Maishuga

Police Public Relations Officer of the command, DSP Haruna Mohammed, confirmed the incident, saying: "One of the suspected robbers was shot dead, while we recovered a vehicle, master key, knife and one hand set from him".

DSP Mohammed said the corpse of the suspect has been deposited at the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Teaching Hospital (ATBUTH), Bauchi.

He said the victim, Alhaji Salisu and members of his family were not hurt in the attack, adding that investigation is on to arrests other members of the gang.

A neighbour to the victim told newsmen that Alhaji Salisu placed a distress call to the police that armed robbers had invaded his house and that immediately, a combined team of policemen and members of a vigilante group rushed to the scene.
