4 BOYS DROWN IN JIGAWA RIVER

Category: News Published on Friday, 11 July 2014 05:00 Written by Abdullahi Anako, Dutse Hits: 317

Four boys between the ages of 11 and 13, drowned yesterday while swimming in a river along Garki town, about two kilometers to Taura Local Government Area of Jigawa State.

This was disclosed to newsmen by the Commandant of Jigawa State Command of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) Dr. Muhammad Gidado.

He said: "Men of the Civil Defence Rapid Rescue Team were alerted that six boys were missing in Taura Local Government Area and they embarked on a search. They discovered the boys' clothes along the river bank in Garki and they quickly embarked on a rescue mission. Four of the boys; Abubakar Dahiru, Adamu Abdulumuni, Sabiu Yusuf and Ibrahim Kabiru died while the remaining two were rescued alive".

The commandant advised parents and guardians to monitor the movement of their children/wards, especially during the rainy season to prevent them from going close to rivers.
