Seven people died while three others were injured in an auto crash which occurred along Ankpa-Ayingba road in Kogi State on Saturday.

The state Sector Commander of the FRSC, Mr Godwin Omiko, who confirmed the incident to Daily Trust, blamed the crash on wrongful overtaking and dangerous driving.

He said the accident involved two Honda Accord cars with registration numbers FCT ABJ 775 GB and Lagos GGE 715 CQ and a Sienna car with registration number KNA 52 LG.

Omiko said 15 people were involved in the accident and that seven died, two were injured while five others escaped unhurt.

He said those injured were taken to the General Hospital, Ayangba, for treatment, while relatives of the deceased have started collecting the corpses. He appealed to motorists to drive with caution.
