A businessman identified as Mallam Muhammadu, popularly known as Baba Salisu, was found dead by the road side at Gwargwaje, Zaria on Monday, our correspondent gathered yesterday.

It was gathered that some women returning from a night church service saw the man and raised an alarm which attracted people to the scene.

"A woman identified the dead man as Mallam Muhammad who sells tomatoes in PZ Zaria," a witness said. The witness said gunshots were heard at the early hours of Monday but residents of the area remained indoors. Late Mallam Muhammad, according to witnesses, was married with three children.

When contacted yesterday, his wife said; "My husband left the house on Sunday to buy goods but he didn't come back that day and that was very unusual of him. Our efforts to reach him on phone ended in vain. God will punish those who killed my husband."
