Gunmen killed three policemen at a check-point after Tilden Fulani village in Toro local government area of Bauchi State, police and council officials said yesterday.

The state police public relations officer, DSP Haruna Mohammed, who confirmed the incident said: "I am yet to get details of the attack, but as soon as I do so I will let you know."

Weekly Trust gathered from security sources and officials of Toro local government that the incident occurred on Thursday between 10:30pm and 11:30pm. They said the slain policemen were killed at their regular check-point in the area.

They added that five policemen were on duty, but two had gone to eat in the town while three remained at check-point in their vehicle, stating that before the pair would return, the gunmen had attacked and killed their comrades and taken away a rifle.
