Authorities of the Nigeria Railway Corporation on Friday confirmed the death of a middle-aged woman believed to have been crushed to death by a train.

Lagos State District Manager of the corporation, Mr Akin Osinowo, told newsmen that the incident occurred when the woman was getting on the moving train.

The woman was reported to have jumped down from a tricycle conveying her and hurried to catch an Apapa-Ijoko bound train but fell off the train while struggling to get on it.

The incident was confirmed to have occurred at Iganmu area of Lagos.

"The case was reported to the police at the railway compound, Ebute Metta. I also learnt that some people came to claim the corpse", he said. (NAN)
