

Police arrest killers of cattle rearer

Category: News Published on Monday, 15 December 2014 05:00
Written by Ahmed Mohammed, Bauchi Hits: 233

The Bauchi State Police Command has arrested the cattle rustlers who recently killed a cattle rearer in the state.

The police also recovered arms and ammunitions from them.

Police spokesman, DSP Haruna Mohammed, said in a statement in Bauchi, weekend, that detectives attached to the Dass Division in collaboration with Danga Vigilantes arrested one Yusuf Abdulkadir, aged 46, and six others after an exchange of gunfire at Dajin Village in Tafawa Balewa LGA of the state.

Mohammed said the suspects conspired to kill a cattle rearer, one Mohammed Jamo of Pankshin LGA of Plateau State, and took away his 32 cows.

0 Comments Daily Trust

Login ▾

Sort by Newest ▾

Share  Favorite ★

Start the discussion...

Be the first to comment.

 Subscribe  Add Disqus to your site  Privacy

back to top

Facebook  Disqus

Add a comment...

☒ Also post on Facebook

Posting as Vitus Ukoji (Not you?)

Comment

Facebook social plugin

IK Uche & Martins Return

After scoring above 100 Laliga goal
Super eagles set to end win drought

LATEST NEWS

Ebola still a serious challenge in W/Africa – ECOWAS

RATTAWU threatens 3-day warning strike from tomorrow

Minister decorates Fire Service boss tomorrow

Women told not to consider gender a disadvantage

Mark urges military to keep Nigeria together