

2 die in clash over girlfriend

Category: News Published on Monday, 02 February 2015 05:00
Written by Hope Abah, Makurdi Hits: 934

Two people died yesterday, as two armed groups clashed over a girl at Adekaa in Gboko area of Benue State.

Police spokesman, DSP John Bako, said though details of the incident were still sketchy, the deceased's names were given as Tersoo and Aisha.

He said the problem started with two men from both groups, laying claim to the late Aisha as their girlfriend.

Bako added that dangerous weapons were freely used during the fight which led to the deaths of Tersoo, one of the supposed boyfriend and Aisha.

It was gathered that the incident occurred at the home of Tersoo, near Bristow College at Adekaa in Gboko.

But witnesses said the late Tersoo was murdered following his involvement with a youth group in fishing out the killers of a deceased pharmacist, Cletus Labe.

LATEST NEWS

Nigeria, Ghana form Joint trade task force

FG approves dry inland depot for Kebbi

Zamfara communities to get roads, street light

Elections: Jos communities commit to peace

Bauchi govt to support reconstruction of 170-yr-old mosque

0 Comments Daily Trust

Login ▾

Sort by Newest ▾

Share  Favorite ★

Start the discussion...

Be the first to comment.

 Subscribe

 Add Disqus to your site

 Privacy

back to top

 Facebook

 Disqus

< Prev

Next >