Category: News | Published on Sunday, 08 February 2015 05:00 | Written by Misbahu Bashir, Kaduna | Hits: 8718

Unknown gunmen yesterday attacked a police post in Bade village, Jema'a local government area, Kaduna state, killing at least five policemen.

Bade is located on the border between Jaba and Jema'a local government areas along the Kachia-Keffi road.

A source said gunmen suspected to be armed robbers killed five policemen in Bade last Friday. He said armed robbers had earlier attacked travellers along the Keffi road and carted away huge sums of money on Thursday.

"Those who killed the policemen were likely the robbers who attacked travellers two days ago. A senior officer working with Igabi local government council was among the victims of robbers," the source added.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Deputy Superintendent Zubairu Abubakar said he had not got the details of the attack. Mr Abubakar, however, promised to contact his superiors. He could not be reached at the time of filing this report yesterday.

Intact the police should spread out at strategic position while on guard.
