

Professor Ajiboye urged Nigerians not to agonize but organize towards ensuring that the new set of leaders that will emerge in the country are those with genuine interest for the masses.

17 die in Osun auto crash

From Abdul-Hameed Oyegbade, Osogbo

Seventeen persons died while many others sustained various degrees of injury in an auto crash which occurred along the Ilesa/Ife express way in Osun State yesterday evening. A witness said the accident involved a Sienna Toyota bus and a Hummer bus. The FRSC Unit Commander in Ile-ife, Mr. Richard Adetoro, said bodies of the deceased were deposited in the morgue at the Obafemi Awolowo Teaching Hospital, Ile-Ife while those injured were being attended to in the same hospital.

adviser acted
- Falana