

Nigeria: Three Villagers Killed in Kaduna

By Misbahu Bashir

Kaduna — At least three people were killed yesterday in an attack on Atufa village in Ankwa District of Kachia LGA of Kaduna State by unidentified persons.

The area has witnessed a number of attacks on natives and herders resulting in the death of hundreds of people while dozens of families were displaced. Most of the attacks on livestock farmers were reportedly carried out by rustlers believed to be hiding in nearby bushes. Police spokesman DSP Zubairu Abubakar did not reply text messages.
