4 feared killed in Plateau attacks

From Onimisi Alao, Jos

Four people were feared killed while seven others sustained injuries Tuesday in attacks by unidentified people in Mangu and Barkin-Ladi LGAs of Plateau State.

Chairman of Barkin-Ladi LGA, Dr Emmanuel Loman, told Daily Trust that a man and his wife were killed in their home in Kassa while two youths were killed in Marik village on Tuesday night.

"All I can say is that there had been issues between herdsmen and members of the communities in Marik," he said. Spokesman of the Special Task Force (STF), Capt Ikedichi Iweha said only one person died.
