One person was killed while three others were injured when gunmen invaded the venue of a rally organised by the PDP in Bakana, Degema LGA of Rivers State on Saturday. Witnesses said the gunmen stormed the venue shortly after the party's governorship candidate, Barrister Nyesom Wike, and his entourage left the rally and hundreds of party supporters were about leaving. Meantime, the PDP in a statement signed by Felix Obuah urged the police to carry out a thorough investigation into the incident and arrest those behind it. Rivers State police spokesman, DSP Ahmad Muhammad said the shooting was carried out after the rally and one person was killed.
