

Also in the senatorial and House of Representative elections, PDP is said to be in the lead.

INEC loses 3 ad-hoc staff in Benue

From Hope Abah, Makurdi

The Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC) in Benue State yesterday confirmed the death of three of its ad-hoc staff in separate accidents which occurred in Vandekiya and Oju Local Government Areas respectively.

Resident Electoral Commissioner, Istifanus Dafwang, said one of the deceased, a female ad-hoc staff died on Saturday morning in Oju, when the motorbike conveying her to her duty post crashed.

He said the two others died yesterday on their way back to Makurdi from Vandekiya when the vehicle in which they travelled was involved in an accident.