

5 worshippers die as cathedral collapses in Enugu

No fewer than five worshippers died following the collapse of the St. Anthony Catholic Church Cathedral in Oduma, Aninri Local Government Area of Enugu State.

A witness told newsmen that the incidence occurred between 8p.m and 9p.m Saturday night following a downpour. He said the worshippers were in a prayer meeting when the incident occurred.

Confirming the incident, the state Police Public Relations Officer, Ebere Amarizu, said the cause of the incident was not yet known.

"Yes, I can confirm to you that five persons died following the collapse of St. Anthony Catholic Church at about 8 p.m, but we are yet to know the cause. It is not yet clear what brought about the collapse of the building, but we have commenced full investigation into the incident," Amarizu said. (NAN)
