Villagers kill 6 suspected robbers

From Ahmed Mohammed,
Bauchi

Residents of Zari village near Kardam in Tafawa Balewa LGA of Bauchi State yesterday killed six men suspected to be armed robbers after they attacked and killed a man, Nuru Usman, in his house.

Police spokesman, DSP
Haruna Mohammed, said

the six gunmen stormed Nuru's house and killed him after he raised alarm that attracted residents. The villagers grabbed five of the attackers and took them before the village head. Before the arrival of the police, hundreds of irate youths overpowered the elders and killed the five suspects on the spot while the sixth who tried to escape was killed in the bush.

The police named the slain suspects as;

Ibrahim Muazu of Kuwai village, Aminu Galadima of Bangon Zari village, Tanko Galadima of Bangon Zari, Gambo Dan Maliki of Kuwai village, Suleiman Dan Maliki of Kuwai village and Sale Galadima of Kuwai village.

The police spokesman said the incident was being investigated.
