A female suicide bomber yesterday blew herself off near a military checkpoint in Damboa Local Government Area of Borno State, killing four people.

Witnesses and vigilantes said the incident happened at Sabon Gari village, 110 kilometers away from Maiduguri along Gombe road.

Maikaho Abdu, a commercial driver said apart from the suicide bomber, two members of vigilante who were assisting military operatives and two other people died on the spot.

"The woman should be around 23 years. She alighted at a military check point in Sabon Gari where she blew herself and killed four other people, making the total number five. She injured many others," he said.

Vigilante Yusuf Ardo said the blast happened around 10:30 in the morning.

"The woman strapped herself with the explosives and alighted from the vehicle some meters away from the checkpoint as if she had reached her destination," he said.
