Relative calm returned to Sohuwar Harbo village in Jahun LGA of Jigawa State yesterday after a clash on Sunday over the relocation of Alhaji Shuaibu Dan Bappah Dankwano, the district head of Harbo, to Tsohuwa Harbo.

Police spokesman, ASP Abdu Jinjiri, said the police command had deployed officers and men to the area to restore peace, adding that the clash claimed one man's life while four others sustained injuries.

A source in Jahun said there had been tension between Harbo Tsohuwa and Harbo Tsabuwa since the appointment of the district head as the people of Tsabuwar Harbo who wanted the district head to reside in their village while the other district insists that he would reside in the headquarters of Harbo which is Sohuwar Harbo where the people of Tsabuwar Harbo migrated from.

The clash broke out among members of the two villages when some protesters from Tsabuwar Harbo stormed Tsohuwar Harbo to protest the relocation.
