A 12-day-old-bride, Aisha Isa Fagge was on Friday murdered in her matrimonial home at Sharada Ja'en quarters in Kano State by suspected rapists, Daily Trust on Sunday reports.

Late Aisha was found dead in her room around 1p.m. when most residents in the area went for the congregational Juma'at prayers.

The deceased's husband, Alhaji Nura Muhammad said he found his late wife dead with her two hands tied with a rope.

He explained that he had spoken with her around 10a.m. before he came to the house later in the day.

"When I got to the house I found the door locked and I knocked severally but there was no response. Later, one Rabi'u Abdulkadir joined me and together we broke the door and entered the house only to found Aisha dead," he said.

The state Police Public Relation Officer, ASP Musa Magaji Majia confirmed the incident saying one Rabi'u Abdulkadir has been arrested in connection with murder.

He was allegedly gone to house on the fateful day without the consent of the deceased's husband.
