

Pastor crushes pedestrian to death at Kubwa

By Emma Elekwa

A 30-year-old man was crushed to death on Sunday night by a speeding car at Phase 3 junction, along Abuja-Zuba expressway of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT).

An eyewitness said the deceased, identified as Baba Abdullahi, was crossing the ever busy expressway around 8.30p.m. when he met his untimely death.

He said the driver, who was coming from the city centre with his Nissan Almera car and heading towards Zuba, suddenly ran into the deceased, killing him on the spot.

According to the man, the corpse was still lying lifeless on the road when the police arrived the scene with their van and carried him away.

While confirming the incident, the Kubwa divisional police officer, Chief Superintendent Nurrudeen Sabo, said his men moved to the scene of the accident immediately they were alerted and carried the victim to the Kubwa General Hospital where he was confirmed dead and was deposited at the morgue.

He said the driver, said to be a clergyman, was at the station and would soon be charged to court for manslaughter.
