A Daily Trust driver on the Jos route died yesterday after his delivery vehicle somersaulted and landed in a ditch at Gidan Waya in Kaduna State.

Thirty-three-year-old Danladi Suleiman was in the vehicle with his assistant, Sagiru Hamisu, who was badly injured.

Family sources said Suleiman died instantly and it took villagers several hours to extricate his body from the mangled vehicle.

"The vehicle was damaged beyond repair. His colleague, Hamisu, sustained injuries and is receiving attention at the Ola Hospital in Jos," Ibrahim Adam, the late driver's cousin said.

Danladi was buried yesterday after funeral prayers at his family residence in Jos where many sympathizers, including the Media Trust Regional Manager, Isa Danjuma Oboni and other staff of the Jos regional office gathered for the funeral rites.
