FCT police patrol team recently gunned down an armed robbery suspect and wounded one other during a gun battle.

A police source at the Command Headquarters told our reporter that police on patrol foiled a major robbery operation by a robbery gang that attempted to rob a hotel at Area 11.

The source said during the operation, one member of the syndicate was fatally wounded by the police while two other members of the syndicate, Goroh Stephen and Johnson Onogu who tried to run were arrested.

When contacted, the FCT Police Public Relations Officer, Assistant Superintendent Anjuguri Manzah, confirmed the arrest and stated that the exhibits recovered from the suspects were an operational vehicle, a blue-coloured 307 with registration number KWL 263 HZ, a red Honda Accord car
