Two directors of the Nigerian Film Corporation in Jos, Plateau state capital were confirmed dead yesterday in a car accident along Kaduna- Kachia road in Kaduna State.

A statement by NFI Head of Public Affairs, Mrs Ngozi Udoh yesterday said the deceased were: Bamidele Olayisade (director human resources) and George James Lawal (director film production, consultancy and industry support service).

They were returning from an official engagement at the National Board of Technical Education (NBTE) when they met their deaths.

“Our hearts go to their respective families and staff of the Nigerian Film Corporation on this unfortunate incident,” the statement said.
