Two suspected armed robbers were yesterday beaten to death by an angry mob in Bauchi State. The suspects were reported to have attempted snatching a motorcycle along Maiduguri road in Bauchi metropolis, upon which the mob beat them into a state of coma from which they did not recover.

Bauchi State police spokesman, DSP Haruna Mohammed, confirmed the incident, saying the suspects allegedly stabbed a motorcycle rider while trying to snatch his motorcycle.

"The incident attracted the attention of passers-by and an angry mob beat the suspects to a state of coma," he said.

He added that detectives attached to Housing Estate Division visited the scene and rushed all the casualties to hospital where they died while receiving treatment.

He identified the deceased as Haruna Abdullahi and Burhanudeen Usman who were residents of Tilden Fulani in Toro local government area of Bauchi State.
