

NEWS >>

Man shot dead as 'anti-gun' charms fail

From Mairo Haruna Dala, Maiduguri

Lukman Alhaji Umaru, has after fortifying himself with 'anti-gun' charms been betrayed by the charms as his friend, Hassan Mohammed, allegedly shot and killed him with a Dane gun on the request of the deceased.

... Friend docked for firing gun deceased, Umar and his friend Mohammed assembled in the house of one Yahaya Halidu and were having breakfast around 8.00a.m. when the incident happened. Police report read in the court indicates that the deceased, who claimed he had anti-gun charms, went to his house and brought assorted charms and a Dane gun and requested Mohammed to shoot him with the gun claiming that it would not harm him.

But when Mohammed aimed at the deceased and fired at his head with the gun, he fell and died.

The case was adjourned to enable Yahaya Halidu in whose house the incident happen, to testify before the court.

The court was told that the