Bauchi villagers ambush armed robbers, kill one

From Balarabe Alkassim, Bauchi

Residents of Kiri-Kasosi village have foiled a robbery attempt on their community, killing one of the robbers.

The robbers reportedly ordered people of the community to raise and keep N5 million, which they would come to collect, failure of which, the locals would face severe consequences.

Deputy Superintendent Haruna Mohammed, the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Bauchi State Command, said the villagers laid an ambush for the armed robbers when they came to attack the community.

He said that one of the suspected robbers, an indigene of Doleri village, who was later identified as Yunusa Bello, was shot dead while the rest fled, leaving behind three Dane guns.

The police spokesman said further investigation led to the arrest of another suspect, Mamman Murtala of Bonamari village in Gamawa LGA, who was alleged to be an accomplice.

He said that the case is being investigated and police will arrest the fleeing suspects.
