Five suspected members of a cult group, including a 28-year-old mother of three, have been arrested for allegedly killing a mechanic during a brawl at a hotel in Okokomaiko area of Lagos State.

The suspects including Christiana Akpan, Toib Ganiyu, Kelly Onocia and one Sina, who were arrested from different hideouts at Ishashi and Cele NICA area of Ojo, allegedly shot the mechanic, Shina Arebo in front of the hotel.

The suspects denied involvement in the crime, but admitted that they heard gun shots on the day of the incident.

Parading the suspects yesterday at the command headquarters, Ikeja, the Commissioner of Police, Lagos State, Fatai Owoseni, said they trailed the deceased to the hotel where he was killed.

"All the suspects took to their heels after they confirmed that the victim had been killed," he said, adding that when the police got information on the incident," the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) swung into action. He added that in the course of investigation, the suspects were identified and rounded up.
