

Teenager dies after falling from a moving truck

By Ajayi Adewale Johnson

A teenage labourer was said to have died after falling from a moving truck loaded with blocks near the rail track on Arab Road, Kubwa, Abuja, yesterday.

The victim, who was identified as Ahmadu Mohammed, loaded blocks into the truck going to a construction site in Byhazhin area of the town when the incident occurred.

An eyewitness told our reporter that Mohammed, who was sitting on top of the blocks at the back of the truck, fell when the truck swerved as it tried to negotiate a sharp bend around Byhazhin.

The witness added that the teenager was rushed to the hospital but died before he was attended to.

City News learnt that the late Mohammed was working for a block industry located at Gado Nasko Way in Kubwa, before his death.

City News also learnt that the victim has since been buried according to Islamic rite at Phase 2, Site 1, Kubwa.
