Police in Enugu yesterday confirmed the electrocution of a paint factory owner and an electrician in Nsukka. The spokesman, Mr Ebere Amaraizu, said the incident occurred on Friday at Uwani-Ugwu-Umuakashi community in Nsukka LGA.

Uwani-Ugwu-Umuakashi community in Nsukka was thrown into mourning following the recovery of two corpses from a well located inside a paint factory in the community. It was identified that one Samuel Ezema now deceased had allegedly invited the co-deceased identified as Emmanuel to effect repairs on his faulty factory water pumping machine located inside a well in the factory. He said the police had begun investigation into the incident, and the corpses had
