City News learnt that the Okada man was found dead with his motorcycle by his side opposite the Local Education Authority (LEA) Primary School in the area.

A resident said a passer-by who sighted the body of the deceased, placed a distress call to the police who came and removed the body. A police source said the body was taken to the Kubwa General Hospital where it was certified dead by a doctor before it was taken away by relations.

In another case, the police recovered a blue Nissan Super Spot in Phase 2, Site 1 area of the same town.

The car was said to have been stolen from where it was parked, in front of the driver's house.

City News gathered that the owner of the vehicle had sent the driver on an errand when it was stolen.

The source said the driver who came out of the house to discover that the car had been removed, immediately alerted the owner who subsequently reported the case to the police.

The source said the police quickly swung into action which led to the recovery of the car where it was abandoned in Kukwaba area of the town.

Meanwhile, the Kubwa Divisional Police Officer (DPO), Chief Superintendent Nuruddeen Sabo, confirmed the murder of the cyclist, saying the body had been collected by the relations for burial.
