An angry mob yesterday lynched an armed robbery suspect at Iponri area of Lagos.

The deceased, along with two others, had allegedly robbed a man of about N300,000 after trailing the man from Zenith Bank on Apapa Road, Ebute Metta where they dispossessed him of the said cash.

It was gathered that the incident occurred at 2, Olaleye New Site, Iponri, Surulere, that the victim, identified as Adewale Adeyemi, was accosted in front of his office by the criminals who rode a motorcycle. It was also learnt that the robbers had demanded the victim to hand over the cash he had withdrawn from the bank, that when the victim resisted, his attackers shot him in the right leg.

A witness said, "It was the sound of the gunshot that attracted passers-by who pounced on one of the robbers as his colleagues
