Security agents in Jos have discovered the corpse of a missing commercial tricycle operator in Rusau village, a community behind the University of Jos village hostel, following days of investigation into his disappearance.

The deceased, who was identified as 50-year-old Hudu Abdullahi, was reported missing last week Friday but his corpse was found and recovered by a combined team of policemen and soldiers. It was later deposited at the Plateau Specialist Hospital.

Police say the deceased's tricycle was also discovered in a family compound in the community and has been recovered and taken to Laranto Police Station.

Plateau State police spokesman, DSP Emmanuel Abu, who confirmed the incident, said five suspects were arrested in connection with the death, adding that full investigation into the matter was ongoing.
