Kuje killings: Council boss condoles bereaved families

By Abubakar Sadiq Isah

The Chairman of Kuje Area Council, Alhaji Abdullahi D. Galadima, on Tuesday paid a condolence visit to the families of three persons killed by gunmen at Zagabutu village of the council.

City News reports that gunmen, wielding AK47 rifles had, in the early hours of Sunday, invaded the village, killing three people, among them a prominent elder, Alhaji Wokili, and dispossessed them of their monies.

Galadima, who was in company of an APC chieftain, Senator Usman Jibrin Wowo, Chief of Gwargwada, Alhaji

Hussain Agabi Mam, and some top politicians to attend the third day prayer for the deceased, condemned the attack.

The chairman, urged the families of the deceased to take heart and see the death as an act of God. He prayed for the repose of the souls of the deceased.

He urged residents of the community to remain calm, while urging security agents to intensify effort to bring the perpetrators to book.

Also speaking, the chieftain of APC, Senator Wowo, also commiserated with the bereaved families and prayed for the souls of the dead to rest in peace.
