A police sergeant yesterday in Katsina killed his colleague a corporal following a scuffle between their children at Sabuwar Unguwa area of the metropolis.

The killer sergeant has already been apprehended and locked, sources at the police command headquarters told Daily Trust.

The sergeant allegedly led his wife and other children to the residence of the late corporal and pounced on him.

When contacted the state command's spokesman Aminu Sadiq promised to verify and get across to our reporter, but he never did up to the time of filing this report.
