by suspected Boko Haram militants at Pulka, Borno State.

A statement from army spokesman Colonel Sani Usman said the militants, who came through Banki axis of Sambisa forest, attempted to inflict damage on the troops. He said the vigilant soldiers rose to the occasion and dealt with the terrorists by killing six of them, adding that they also recovered 1 Fabrique Nationale (FN) rifle with registration number 167229, two belts of 148 rounds of 7.62mm (NATO) ammunition and 1 FN rifle magazine loaded with 7.62mm ammunition (Special).
