A source at the popular joint known as 'Iron Body' where the incident happened, told our correspondent that the deceased was from Zuru area of Kebbi State, saying,

"She used to come regularly to the joint where she was killed to hang around even though she was dating the security guard that killed her. Only God knows what transpired between them that night." The source added that it took the combined efforts of the police and soldiers at the barracks to discover her corpse where it was dumped in the bush. When arrested, the security guard was reported to have confessed to the police that he killed his girlfriend in error during a fight between them.
