Speaking to newsmen during the protest, Public Relation Officer (PRO) of Student Union Government (SUG) of the institution, Jafaru Habibu, said, "While the students were protesting, the police shot two students, of which one died instantly while the second one is still receiving treatment at the hospital."

On their part, the Police said that they were investigating the development. The Nasarawa State Deputy Commissioner of Police in charge of Finance and Administration, Patrick Garba, who addressed newsmen shortly after the incident at the state's Police Headquarters in Lafia, said, "Our men who were led by the Assistant Commissioner of Police in charge of Operation have not yet briefed me on further development."
