The Lagos State Commissioner of Police, Fatai Owoseni, yesterday said three corpses were found to have been buried at the back yard of the house where 28 persons were discovered to have been chained.

He said the corpses were buried in a shallow grave by the suspect at different period.

Detectives had on Friday, rescued 13 children and 15 adults allegedly chained and locked up by one Emmanuel Adeyemi, at the Oke-ira area of Ojodu.

This discovery came even as the Lagos Police boss also disclosed that the scavenger, who was allegedly kidnapped at no 31, Kayode Adebajji Street, off Unity Road, Ashamu Estate in Oke-Afa, last weekend, has been found.

He said that the scavenger was tracked down at Kano State by police.
