The traditional ruler of Mbayongo district in Kastina Ala local government area of Benue State, Tyoor Awuha Alev, has been killed.

Daily Trust gathered that the royal father was shot at his palace in Vingir village about 8:00pm on Sunday. The Benue State Police Command Public Relations Officer, ASP Moses Yamu, said the police received report about 8:30 pm that Chief Alev was killed by some unknown men at his residence.

Yamu said the command had dispatched more policemen to the area to maintain law and order, and that investigation into the matter had commenced.
