A statement by the Special Assistant to the Bauchi State governor on Communications, Shamsuddeen Lukman Abubakar, said Sakwa died in the accident on Saturday alongside his driver.

Sakwa who was sworn in alongside 19 other caretaker chairmen only in August, was buried yesterday alongside the driver according to Islamic rites.

Speaking to our correspondent on telephone after the burial, the Bauchi State APC Publicity Secretary, Auwal Jallah described Sakwa as a cool tempered and grassroots politician whose death was as a great loss to the state, the party and the people of Zaki local government area.
