1 feared dead during FUTA protest in Ondo

From Bola Ojuola, Akure

One person was feared dead during a protest by some workers of the Federal University of Technology Akure (FUTA).

The protesters who were said to be members of the Senior Staff

Association of Nigerian Universities (SSANU) were demanding the sack of the Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. Adebisi Daramola who was accused of financial impropriety.

It was gathered that one of the protesters was hit by a vehicle and he was rushed to the hospital where he died.

The Public Relations Officer of the university, Mr Adegbenro Adebajo said he was not aware of the development.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) for the state Police command, Mr Femi Joseph said the matter was a vehicular accident and it was being investigated.
