A witness, Daniel Sangwe, told Daily Trust that the incident happened around 6 am at a Keffi axis roundabout of the highway when the loaded tanker lost its break.

Sangwe said, "When the driver failed to control the tanker, the tanker hit the roadside and exploded, spilling the burning fuel around the area, which led to the death of one person and the destruction of over 30 shops and three vehicles."

The state Police Public Relations Officer, (PPRO) Idrisu Kennedy, confirmed the incident, the death of one person, and the destruction of 'many shops.'
