17 arrested with arms and ammunition in Kaduna

State

A 400 Level student of Osun State University, (UniOsun) Osogbo, Adebisi Rofiat Damilola who had been missing since the last couple of days, has been found dead.

The Police said they had started efforts to unravel circumstances surrounding her death.

Daily Trust learnt that Rofiat who was studying Science Education at the Ipetu-Ijesa campus of the university, left Ipetu last Thursday to attend a programme of NASFAT society at Ikoyi near Ikire and her whereabouts had been unknown since then.

A source who spoke to our correspondent on the development, said, "Rofiat left Ipetu-Ijesha on Thursday. She was supposed to be in a NASFAT programme at Ikoyi not far from Ikire. We have been looking for her since Thursday. We just received a phone call that Rofiat's body was found somewhere around Iragbiji".

The Commissioner of Police in the state, Mr Fimihaan Adeoye, confirmed the incident and assured that the perpetrators would be apprehended and brought to book.

Daily Trust gathered that the father of the deceased student died recently and that the family was still mourning.

Meanwhile, the two final year students of the same university, Samuel Eke and Akinduro Robert who were declared missing since September 5th have not been found.

The Police arrested and arraigned a student of the university, Adedamola Olagoke, before a Magistrate Court sitting in Osogbo for kidnapping because he was the person that communicated last with the missing students before their disappearance.
