

Nasarawa State Police Commissioner, Abubakar Sadiq Bello (2nd left), parades Kolawole Lawal before newsmen for allegedly being in possession of N8.9 million counterfeit notes, in Lafia yesterday

The Kebbi State Police Command said it has killed four members of a notorious gang of kidnappers, armed robbers and cattle rustlers while three others were arrested at Danko/Wasagu area of the state.

The gang, according to the police, was responsible for the kidnapping and murder of one Alhaji Abdulkadir whose corpse was recovered recently at Garin Auwalu area of Danko/ Wasagu.

Speaking to journalists on the incident yesterday, the police public relations officer (PPRO), ASP Mustapha Suleiman said members of the gang confronted men of the anti -robbery squad (SARS) in a shootout and four of them were killed, one of them was arrested and the corpse of the victim was recovered in the bush.

While parading two members of the gang, Aminu Jibrin and Ahmadu Muhammed, the police said when officers started picking some members of the gang up, the other members got angry and killed Alhaji Abdulkadir.

While answering questions from journalists, the two suspects, Aminu and Ahmadu confessed they had taken part in many cattle rustling, kidnapping and armed robbery incidents in the state.
