A clash between policemen and some protesters left one person dead and three others injured in Dandume Local Government Area of Katsina State yesterday. The protesters had gone to the Divisional Police Office over the arrest of some residents in connection with an earlier killing of a suspected cattle rustler called Mairakumi by a mob.

Daily Trust gathered that Mairakumi had been terrorizing the residents which led to mob action. Witnesses said when the protesters arrived the police station demanding the release of some arrested members of the community, a fracas ensued, leading to the firing of guns, which killed one person and injured several others.

Although normalcy was later restored, the Commissioner of Police, Usman Abdullahi, said an investigation had commenced on the matter. He declined to give details.
