Two children identified as Aisha Abdulmumin and Amina Abdulmumin have drowned in a stream at Konkiyel village of Darazo local government area Bauchi State, a statement by the Bauchi State Police Command has said.

Spokesperson of the police in Bauchi, SP Haruna Mohammed, said yesterday that the incident was reported to Darazo Divisional Police headquarters by one resident Samaila Magaji.

According to the statement, police patrol team attached to Darazo division visited the scene and took the children to the General Hospital Darazo for medical attention.

"The victims were certified dead on arrival by a medical doctor. Corpses photographed and deposited at the Mortuary for post-mortem examination after which they would be released to relatives for burial," it stated.

The children were said to have left home to play.

The statement noted that the case is under investigation to ascertain actual cause of the incident.

"Parents and guardians are strongly advised to caution their children to stay away from streams or rivers in order not to fall victims of drowning especially during this period rainy season," the statement added.
