The Police in Adamawa State have paraded five suspects for killing a pregnant woman after accusing her of witchcraft.

Addressing journalists in Yola, the Commissioner of Police, Moses Jitoboh said the suspects used sticks and a rope to kill the 32-year-old woman, Ayina Afraimu, of Falu village in Guyuk Local Government Area.

The suspects were Abraham Adamu, 18, Malachi Yilafane, 35, Thomas Aji, 54, Zakariya Chorum, 56 and Miss Newana Ilihal, 20.

Jitoboh said the suspects would be charged to court for culpable homicide, criminal conspiracy and defamation of character.

One of the suspects, Newana Ilihal, said they belonged to the same cult with the woman but when they realised she was becoming too powerful, they conspired to kill her.
