The Nigerian Army said troops of 'Operation Lafiya Dole' in the Northeast killed 13 Boko Haram terrorists in the ongoing clearance operations.

A statement yesterday by Army spokesman, Brigadier General Sani Usman said, on Saturday 5th August 2017, troops of 151 Battalion, 21 Brigade Nigerian Army, Operation Lafiya Dole, sprang an ambush on suspected Boko Haram terrorists along Miyanti-Banki Junction.

He said the troops neutralized 12 terrorists and recovered 18 bicycles, 30 bags of flour, one bag of groundnut, two bags of salt, two baskets of kola nut and five torch lights.

Items recovered include; a carton of mixed juice sachets, four rolls of brocade material, two packets of sweet, one carton of washing soap, five packets of cold patch and two packet of Maggi cubes.

Others are; two pairs of bathroom slippers, two packets of yeasts, four packets of Vedan, two rolls of sewing thread, four kegs of herbicide, 14 packets of insecticide, one keg of groundnut oil, a bag of pepper and cash sum of N4,000.00.
