

2 armed robbers shot dead

From Eugene Agha, Lagos

Members of the Vigilante of Nigeria (VGN) yesterday engaged some armed robbers in a shoot-out at the Isashi area of Ojo, Lagos State, killing two of the robbers in the process.

The robbers were said to have stormed a popular drinking bar located at the Cele bus stop area of Isashi, dispossessing some residents of their belongings.

The Deputy State Commander of the VGN, Ayede Santos, told

City News that two of the robbers were killed in the process, while four others escaped with varying degrees of bullet wounds.

Santos said some weapons belonging to the robbers were also recovered as they abandoned their arms for flight.

According to him, the robbers arrived at the area around 2am yesterday and headed for the bar.

Police sources confirmed the incident and said the police have already commenced efforts to arrest the other suspects that escaped.
