the Boko Haram terrorists who attempted to infiltrate their outpost with vehicles and people bearing improvised explosive devices.

“In the ensuing fire fight, troops inflicted heavy casualty on the terrorists, repelled the attack on their location, neutralised 15 BHTs (Boko Haram Terrorists), captured one Panhard Vehicule Blinde Leger, large caches of various ammunitions, destroyed one Toyota Hilux pick up mounted with Anti-Aircraft and one Gun Truck,” the statement said, adding that several other BHTs escaped with gunshot wounds.

“Sadly, one soldier died during the attack and his remains has been evacuated,” the statement said, adding however that the troops remained determined in their task of safeguarding communities and providing the right environment for humanitarian agencies to do their work.
